TEAM OUTLOOK

As the Wakefield and Allen girls' basketball teams join, the Allen and Wakefield boys' teams will be on their own yet again. The Allen boys went 1-1 during the Subdistrict Tourney a year ago with a win over Santee (62-45) but ended their season at 7-12 with a loss to Wynot (48-22). The Wakefield (C2) at Allen (D1) showdown will be on 11/30. The Eagles will move up a class this year to Class D1 for postseason basketball.

TEAM OUTLOOK

Just like the volleyball season, Wakefield and Allen will co-op during the girl's high school basketball season and compete in Class C1. Last year, Wakefield finished 6-15 dropping four of their final five games as Allen went 5-16 and split a pair of games in the Subdistrict Tournament. The Wakefield-Allen Trojans will open on the road with Pender (11/29) before hosting five straight games in December.

HARTINGTON CEDAR CATHOLIC TROJANS

TEAM OUTLOOK

As the Hartington Cedar Catholic volleyball team is coming off a second straight runner-up finish at state, the HCC girls' basketball team will look to make it two in a row for heading back to Lincoln. Last year, the Trojans saw an early exit in the first round with a 49-41 loss to Hastings St. Cecilia to finish 16-9. Cedar Catholic will begin their season at home and compete in the Mid State Conference during the 2018-19 season.

HARTINGTON-NEWGASTLE WILDGATS

TEAM OUTLOOK

The Hartington-Newcastle girls basketball team dropped a first-round Subdistrict match to in-town rival, Hartington Cedar Catholic (32-31). HNS finished 19-4 and half of their losses came to state qualifying teams. The Wildcats started 2017 with seven straight wins while adding another eight-game winning streak. The Wildcats will open this year with a Thursday night home game before traveling for three straight road games. Among the HNS schedule include the Stanton Holiday Tournament, Hartington-Newcastle Classic, Trojan Classic and Lewis & Clark Conference Tournament.

TEAM OUTLOOK

The Pender girls basketball team will look to start off this season like they did last year after winning three of their first four games. The Pendragons then closed out the 2017-18 season with a 10-14 record with a Subdistrict loss to Clarkson/Leigh (55-48). Half of the eight games for Pender will open at home while the Pendragons will join several other area teams for the Wayne Holiday Tourney.

PONGA INDIANS

TEAM OUTLOOK

Following a 10-year dry spell from winning a state championship, the Ponca boys basketball team is coming off winning back-to-back in the Spring of 2017 and 2018. Ponca closed out last year season with a 50-40 win over Hastings St. Cecilia and a 30-1 record. Ponca will visit three straight opponents, host two games, before visiting two more teams prior to the Wisner-Pilger Holiday Tournament.

RANDOLPH GARDINALS

TEAM OUTLOOK

Randolph fell one-win short of qualifying for state with a 63-32 loss to the eventual Class D1 champions of North Central. The Cardinals had a solid mid-season winning 10-straight, including a runner-up finish in the Lewis & Clark Conference Tourney finishing 18-7 overall. With a road heavy first half schedule, the Cardinals will play four of their six December games away from home. Randolph will also open their season in late November with a road game while being the host for a Holiday Tournament in late December.

TEAM OUTLOOK

It was a tough one-win season for Winside during the 2017-18 year where their only victory came at the hands of an opponent who also finished with one-win. The Wildcats suffered a 37-18 loss in the Subdistrict Tourney to end their season at 1-20. Winside took part in the Randolph Holiday Tourney, Hartington-Newcastle Post-Holiday Tourney, Lewis & Clark Conference Tourney and Subdistrict play. Four of the six season opening games this year for Winside are scheduled to be played at home before hitting the road for Holiday Tourney action.

TEAM OUTLOOK

Wins were spread out a year ago for Wisner-Pilger who closed out the 2017-18 season with a 9-15 record after falling to Battle Creek (44-40) in the Subdistrict Tourney. The Gators didn't have more than two, two-game winning streaks. A Tipoff Classic will again open the Wisner-Pilger girls basketball season before the Gators host the Holiday Tourney on December 27.
