TEAM OUTLOOK

For the second consecutive year, the Allen boys' basketball team will be classified in Class D1 after making the switch from Class D2 two seasons ago. The Eagles finished 9-13 last year putting together a stretch of four straight wins in mid-January but lost to Emerson-Hubbard in the D1-4 subdistrict (38-35). Allen will be under first year head coach Chris Blohm who'll bring in four years of coaching experience. The Eagles return most of their line-up and have set high expectations on themselves and the team. Coach Blohm said the team needs to focus on a strong defense and aggressive rebounding to contribute on the offensive side of the floor.

TEAM OUTLOOK

For the second year, the Wakefield and Allen girls' basketball teams will take part in their cooperative agreement, but with a new coach. After going 4-15 last season (one win coming against an lowa school), Kent Emswiler will take over as head coach. This year's Trojan team will be full of young athletes on the varsity team with only one senior as W/A graduated five a year ago. Coach Emswiler said the team is looking forward to competing in every game and improving on last year's record. Wakefield-Allen will again compete in Class C1.

HARTINGTON GEDAR CATHOLIC TROJANS

TEAM OUTLOOK

The Hartington Cedar Catholic Trojans will make the classification change in girls' basketball from C2 to Class D1. HCC has qualified for back-to-back district finals where they defeated Ainsworth (70-42) two years ago and lost to the eventual Class C2 third-place team of Oakland-Craig (57-49) in 2018-19 ending their year at 12-9. Under head coach Craig Wortmann, Hartington Cedar Catholic will not play a home game under January 18 (seven road games/Wayne Holiday Tournament). But in the second half of the schedule, the Trojans have five home games in 2020.

TEAM OUTLOOK

The LCC Bears had an odd ending to their season where they had to play the same team twice in five days. After losing to Ponca 50-48 in the subdistrict final, Laurel-Concord-Coleridge then suffered a 55-45 setback to the Indians during the district final finishing 22-5 in 2018-19. LCC will make the classification change from C2 to Class D1 this year and will be under sixth year head coach Todd Erwin. The Bears will return four starters, bringing back experience, while planning to continue to play their pressure defense and up-tempo offense.

TEAM OUTLOOK

After competing in Class D1, the Pender boys basketball team will make the switch to Class D2 this year. Pender is coming off a 9-14 season where they won three of their final five games but had a 58-53 setback to Homer in the D1-4 subdistrict. The Pendragons won at least one game in each month played (November: one/ December: two/January: three/February: three). Pender will be under new direction of Mitchell Mailloux as the head coach. Pender will compete in the Wayne Holiday Tourney (12/27 - 12/30) at Wayne State College and is a member of the East Husker Conference.

GIRLS

TEAM OUTLOOK

The Pender Pendragons improved on their previous season by adding three more wins and three less losses after going 13-11 in 2018-19. Pender went 1-1 in the D1-6 subdistrict by defeating Osmond (72-37) but falling to Randolph (55-42) and again will compete in Class D1. With two seniors graduating, they'll be replaced by two more seniors along two returning starters being juniors and a sophomore starter. Coach Luke Hoffman and the staff feels like their team has about 14 girls at this time that could step up and contribute to this year's varsity team. The Pendragons have depth with 23 girls on the team with speed being a key asset to the 2019-20 team's success as they rise together as one.

TEAM OUTLOOK

The Pierce boys' basketball team improved their record by one win from the year prior after going 10-13 two seasons ago, the Bluejays went 11-13 in 2018-19. Pierce only won three games in the months of November, December and early January. The Bluejays then took off in late January winning the Mid State Conference Tourney, securing eight consecutive wins before falling to Wayne twice. WHS topped PHS 54-47 at the end of the season and then again in the C1-7 subdistrict (39-35). Pierce returns five starters and 19th year head coach Mike Emory. Coach Emory stated if the team works hard every day in practice and improves throughout the year, they'll have a successful season.

TEAM OUTLOOK

Following a state tournament berth in Class C1 during the 2017-18 season, the Bluejays are coming off a .500 record. The Pierce girls' basketball team dropped a 36-24 low scoring C1-7 subdistrict final to O'Neill to end last season at 11-11. In the 2018-19 season, Pierce had a tough stretch of games in January where they went 1-6 including having one game cancelled. Head coach Darren Sindelar will return to lead the program back in the Class C1 classification. Pierce will compete in the Shootout on the Elkhorn in Wisner (12/28 – 12/30) and Mid State Conference Tournament (2/1 – 2/8).

PONGA INDIANS

TEAM OUTLOOK

After winning back-to-back Class C2 state titles in 2017 and 2018, the Ponca boys basketball team brought home the third-place trophy last season after defeating Centennial (52-42). The Indians finished 24-5 and have won 81 games the past three seasons. Ponca will again compete in Class C2 under head coach Adam Poulosky, but the team did lose six players from last year's team. Ponca will return two starters and their sixth man led by Carter Kingsbury (First Team All-State in C2). Coach Poulosky said if the team is going to have the same level of success as the past few years, they'll need to have some young guys with no varsity experience really step up.

TEAM OUTLOOK

After qualifying for their third state tournament in five years, the Ponca Indians are coming off a 23-win season with just one of their three regular season losses coming to an out of state opponent (Vermillion, SD). Ponca suffered a 59-47 loss to the eventual Class C2 third-place team of Oakland Craig (59-47) in the first round at state. The 23-4 record improved on the team's previous season going 15-9 in 2017-18. The Indians will again compete in Class C2 under the direction of Bob Hayes. For the second consecutive year, the Ponca girls' basketball team will make a trip to the Tyson Event Center in Sioux City, IA. The Indians will face Dakota Valley, South Dakota on January 11.

RANDOLPH CARDINALS

TEAM OUTLOOK

After making the classification switch last year from D1 to D2, the Randolph boys basketball team will again compete Class D2. The Cardinals went 8-14 last season after going 1-1 in the D2-4 subdistrict beating Wausa (57-46) but falling to the eventual Class D2 state runner-up team of Osmond (54-44). Coach Mark Anderson will return for his 14th season as head coach. The 2019-20 Randolph team will return good senior leadership and several skill players but coach Anderson stated the team will need to work on rebounding. Randolph will host their Holiday Tourney (12/27-12/28) and compete in the Lewis & Clark Conference Tournament (1/31-2/10).

TEAM OUTLOOK

The 2018-19 season marked the third consecutive year that Randolph has qualified for a district final but failed to advance to state. The Cardinals finished 14-10 last year falling to Pleasanton 47-24 (third-place finish at state) in the D1-2 district final. Randolph has changed to play in Class D2 this year and will be under first year head coach Marcus Papenhausen. Randolph lost six seniors as many new roles will look to be filled with girls who haven't played much on the varsity team. Coach Papenhausen stated a strength to this year's team will be, without a big star player, they'll have different girls who can provide a balance to the team.

TEAM OUTLOOK

The Wakefield Trojan boys' basketball team ended a 12-year drought of state tournament basketball after posting a 20-win season and a berth in the Class C2 state tourney. Wakefield suffered a first round defeat the eventual fourth-place team of Centennial (56-48) ending their season at 20-4. After going 2-1 in the Lewis & Clark Conference Tournament, the Trojans won their six final games on the road at the end of the regular season. Coach Joe Wendte will return as the head coach for Wakefield who also began the year winning nine straights to open their 2018-19 season. The team improved on their 13-11 record from two seasons ago. The Trojans will again compete in the Shootout on the Elkhorn in Wisner (12/28-12/30).

WAYNE BLUE DEVILS

TEAM OUTLOOK

The Wayne High boys' basketball team competed in their second district final in the past three years but ended the 2018-19 season with a 12-13 record. The Blue Devils topped Pierce and Norfolk Catholic in the C1-7 subdistrict but ran into the eventual fourth-place Class C1 opponent of Wahoo in the district finals (66-47). Wayne High will again play in Class C1 as coach Rob Sweetland returns as the head coach. The Blue Devils will be the host team of the Great Northeast Nebraska Shootout played at Wayne State College and be road warriors late in the season with only five home games scheduled in 2020. WHS will play six of eight on the road in January.

TEAM OUTLOOK

Following a down year in the win column, the Wayne High girls are coming off a 6-14 season in 2018-19. WHS lost to Pierce in the subdistrict tourney (45-34) and will again be competing in Class C1 back under head coach Rocky Ruhl. This year's Blue Devil team will be very young after graduating eight seniors (one being a manager) and four others not rejoining the team. WHS will return just one senior and two sophomores who have a lot of experience. Coach Ruhl said their goal this year is to get better everyday along with working hard and having fun. This year's Wayne High motto is 'all for the love of the game'.

WINSIDE WILDCATS

TEAM OUTLOOK

Following a 15-9 record two seasons ago, the Winside boys' basketball team is coming off a tough 0-20 campaign last year. The Wildcats ended their season with a 57-15 loss to Osceola in the D2-3 subdistrict. Winside will again compete in Class D2 but be under new direction of Adrian Eggers. The team graduated just two seniors from the past class and will return three starters. Coach Eggers said the team has incoming freshmen and several new faces that will look to build bench depth to have a chance to contribute early in the season. Winside will compete in the Randolph Holiday Tourney (12/27 - 12/28), Harington/ Newcastle Post-Holiday Tourney (1/09 - 1/10) and the Lewis & Clark Conference Tourney (1/31 - 2/10).

TEAM OUTLOOK

For the second straight year the Winside girls' basketball team has only been able to manage one win. The Wildcats defeated St. Edward last season (34-31) in Winside and then at St. Edward (40-31) two years ago. Winside will again compete in Class D2 but under new direction of head coach Devin Gnat. The team will be returning two seniors, four juniors and four sophomores while adding two freshmen. Coach Gnat is looking for the team to continue to make large strides, be competitive in games and really start to improve in their team confidence. The second half of the Winside girls' basketball schedule will feature several road outings with only three home games listed in 2020.

TEAM OUTLOOK

After starting the season 7-2 in the 2018 portion of last year's schedule, the Wisner-Pilger boys basketball team dropped a 10-point game of 47-37 to an eventual Class C2 state qualifying team of Wakefield. The Gators closed out their season at 15-10 but did also string together four straight wins in mid-January. Wisner-Pilger went 17-8 the year prior in 2017-18. Coach Duane Mendlik will return as the head coach for Wisner-Pilger who will again compete in Class C2. The Gators will host the Shootout on the Elkhom (12/28 – 12/30) and are a member of the East Husker Conference.

WISNER-PILGER BATORS

TEAM OUTLOOK

After back-to-back nine-win seasons in 2016-17 and 2017-18, the Wisner-Pilger girls basketball team dropped back to a 7-17 record last year. The Gators won three games each in the months of December and January and went 1-4 in the month of February. Wisner-Pilger suffered a 59-33 loss in the C2-5 subdistrict to Oakland-Craig (eventual C2 third place team). The Gators will again compete in Class C2 but under the new direction of head coach Brooke Scheitel. Wisner-Pilger will host the Shootout on the Elkhom in late December and are a member of the East Husker Conference.
