FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 2, 2026

NEBRASKAland Days Announces 2027 Viaero Summer Jam Concert Series Lineup

NORTH PLATTE, NE – NEBRASKAland Days is excited to announce that Koe Wetzel and Jon Pardi will Headline for the 2027 Viaero Summer Jam Concert Series, set for Friday, June 25th and Saturday, June 26th at the Wild West Arena in North Platte. "We're incredibly excited about what we've put together for the 2027 Viaero Summer Jam," said Bob Lantis, NEBRASKAland Days Executive Director. "Koe Wetzel and Jon Pardi are two outstanding headliners who bring tremendous energy and their own unique sound to the stage. Add in Ian Munsick and Presley Barker, and we've got the makings of an incredible weekend of country music. We're proud to continue bringing this level of entertainment to North Platte and look forward to welcoming fans from across the region to the Wild West Arena."

On Friday, June 25, fans will kick off the weekend with headliner Koe Wetzel, a Texas singer-songwriter who has built a massive following with his unique blend of country, rock, hip-hop, and alternative influences. Known for tearing down genre boundaries and delivering high-energy live performances, Wetzel has become one of the most exciting and recognizable names in today's country music scene.

His defining fifth studio album, 9 Lives, released in 2024 through Columbia Records, earned recognition on several major year-end best-of lists, including Rolling Stone, Billboard, and The Tennessean. The album's lead single, "High Road" featuring Jessie Murph, became Wetzel's first entry at Country radio, spending five weeks at No. 1 and earning RIAA Platinum certification. His catalog also includes fan favorites such as "Drunk Driving," "Good Die Young," "Creeps," and "February 28, 2016."

With more than 4.2 billion career streams and a reputation for concerts he describes as "total chaos," Wetzel has developed a passionate following and a reputation for delivering unforgettable live experiences. His combination of musical versatility, powerful songwriting, and electrifying stage presence promises to make Friday night at the Wild West Arena one to remember.

“We’re continuing to finalize our Friday night lineup and look forward to announcing more exciting additions in the weeks ahead,” said Lantis.

On Saturday, June 26, the stage belongs to headliner Jon Pardi, one of country music's leading voices in modern traditional country and honky-tonk. For more than a decade, the Capitol Records Nashville recording artist has been bringing a fresh energy to traditional country music, combining roaring guitars, infectious melodies, and a high-energy, good-time spirit.

With four Top 5 albums, including his 2016 Platinum-certified No. 1 album, California Sunrise, Pardi has established himself as one of the genre's most successful and recognizable artists. His career includes 14 RIAA-certified singles, six of which have reached No. 1, including the back-to-back 6x-Platinum hits "Head Over Boots" and "Dirt On My Boots." With more than 9.3 billion global streams and years of touring and headlining performances around the world, Pardi continues to connect with country music fans everywhere.

His latest album, Honkytonk Hollywood, showcases an artist who isn't afraid to push creative boundaries while staying true to his country roots. Described by Pardi as his "rock and roll record," the project blends traditional country, rock and roll, and West Coast influences into a sound that reflects both his musical evolution and his unmistakable personality. Produced by Jay Joyce, the album features 17 tracks that demonstrate Pardi's willingness to take chances and continue evolving as an artist.

Known for fan favorites including "Heartache Medication," "Night Shift," "Last Night Lonely," and "Your Heart or Mine," Pardi brings the perfect combination of traditional country roots and modern country energy to the stage. His Saturday night performance promises an outstanding show and a crowd full of familiar favorites at the Wild West Arena.

Joining Pardi as special guest is Ian Munsick, a Wyoming-born country artist known for his distinctive Western-inspired sound and songwriting. Drawing heavily from his upbringing in the American West, Munsick blends traditional country influences with modern production and storytelling that celebrates the Western way of life. With popular songs including "Long Haul," "Horses Are Faster," "Long Live Cowgirls," and "White Buffalo," Munsick has established himself as one of country music's recognizable rising stars. His unique sound and connection to Western heritage make him a natural fit for NEBRASKAland Days.

Barker began playing guitar at age seven and quickly made a name for himself in the bluegrass world, winning the adult guitar division at the Galax Old Time Fiddlers Convention at just 11 and 13 years old. He has since shared the stage with country and bluegrass legends including Brad Paisley, Ricky Skaggs, Clint Black, Marty Stuart, Billy Strings, and Shenandoah. Influenced by artists such as Doc Watson, Merle Haggard, Waylon Jennings, Keith Whitley, and George Strait, Barker blends traditional country roots with a modern edge. With his debut release, "Get It Over With," arriving December 4, Barker is beginning an exciting new chapter in his career.

TICKETS GO ON SALE TO THE PUBLIC WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 2026, AT 10:00 A.M. Fans can purchase tickets online at www.nebraskalanddays.com. Fans are encouraged to mark their calendars and secure their tickets early for what promises to be another outstanding Viaero Summer Jam.

The 2027 NEBRASKAland Days celebration will embrace the theme "The West Is Still Wild," celebrating the Western heritage, community spirit, and entertainment that have made NEBRASKAland Days a North Platte tradition for more than 60 years.

For the latest updates, ticket information, and festival details, visit www.nebraskalanddays.com or follow NEBRASKAland DAYS on social media.

Media Contact:
Bob Lantis
Executive Director, NEBRASKAland DAYS
(308) 532-7939
blantis@nebraskalanddays.com
nebraskalanddays.com